HARVEST PARTNERS

JANUARY 2017

VOLUME 4, ISSUE 1

Greetings and blessings in this new year, 2017!

In early December, we organized a national convention, "IMPACT". Every year, we gather our churches together, invite preachers, where we pray and praise God together. It was a privilege to have Bishop Clayton Endecott and Roman Savochka (Larisa's brother) with us. God gave them a miraculous word that touched the hearts of our people.

We also had an ordination service. Pasha and Masha were ordained and we are blessed to have them as pastors in Berezino. Although she has been pastoring beforehand, we officially ordained Larisa to be a pastor.

After this conference, we received testimonies of healing, inspiration, and renewing of the hearts, minds, and spirits. About a year ago, a young girl named Tanya started to attend our church. Not long ago, she was baptized. Tanya has a very strong love for God and His Word. During the "IMPACT" conference, she was miraculously healed. The disease she had been fighting completely disappeared from her body. This has inspired her love and worship of God even more as she inspires those around her with her testimony. One man and woman from Berezino gave their lives to Jesus. In general, lots of people said that they were very inspired and refreshed!

Our project HOME ART is a year old! We continued this project through the winter holidays. During Christmas, we visited different cities where we performed, sang, and danced with the children. HOME ART is a project where young people come together to perform for orphans, foster families, and people with disabilities to show them love, care, and hope. Around 40 people are in a team each season of our project. This past year, we frequently visited 6 places including children's home, social centers, and churches. We were able to give out around 1,000 gifts. Through HOME ART, some of the participants gave their lives to Jesus and many orphaned children were able to hear about their Heavenly Father and God's love for them. We are incredibly thankful for all!
