

GUYANA & SURINAME CONNECTIONS

DECEMBER 2016

ISSUE 3, VOLUME 3

NEW MISSION CHURCH PLANT

Recently, Brother Carlyle and I visited with our brethren in Suriname. We spoke with them about our church's Core Values, the National Overseer's Address at our recent National Convention, and our Statement of Faith and Marriage. We held a party for the children and a time of fellowship for the adults on Saturday evening. The following morning, we held a church service. This group of brethren conduct in our absence a weekly cell group in homes. We have appointed a Leader and Assistant Leader. At least four in the group will attend SDPAS III in Guyana. We have discussed with a group member our desire to use her yard space to hold Church services. We will pay a fee. Brother Collins and I will return March 27th to April 3rd next year. Our objective is to prepare the brethren for membership, set the Church in order and have it registered.

A blessed Christmas and productive 2017 to you and your family.

Humbly,

Bishop Earl Higgins
National Overseer
Guyana & Suriname
